End

1. Place a frame end on the floor and insert platform poles into the holes in the frame end. After this, push a frame end onto the other end of the platform poles. Please see the image to the right.

2. Place a wire platform on the platform poles. After this, insert frame support poles into the holes on the frame end and push a frame end on top. Repeat this on the opposite side. Please see the image to the left.

3. Insert a platform pole into each hole in the frame ends. Make sure they are secure so they don't come loose when they are in use. After this, place the wire platform on top of the platform poles. Please see the images above.

If you wish to make the flower staging any higher, repeat the two previous steps.
